For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to TUESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1818.

From the Catskill (N. Y.) Recorder.

SIR HUGH'S RETURN.

Sir Hugh
Had just returned from Waterloo,
A place where England gained immortal
As will be seen in future story; [glory,
Of course Sir Hugh had gained his part,
For he had fought with all his heart;
Had thrash'd the Frenchmen black and blue.

'Tis true, this son of Mars
Had got some scars;
Had lost two fingers and an ear,
Had one eye pok'd out by a spear;
But this he did not mind,
And though deprived of an ear,
The other ear and eye were left behind:
Ergo, he could both see and hear.

The sun had set,
And Hugh had yet
Some miles to go;
Twice six or so,
Ere he could reach his native glen
Far from the haunts of all but Highlandmen:

For the valiant Sir Hugh
Was a Highlandman true,
As ever wore bonnet or plaid;
With his trusty claymore,
Six Frenchmen or more
On Waterloo's field he had laid:
At least Sir Hugh so said;
And I'll say rien au contraire,
For in good sooth I was not there.

Now though sir Hugo fear'd not death,
Nor any man that e'er drew breath;
Yet he was mortally afraid of witches,
Those "midnight bitches"
That oft at dead of night
Jump on some luckless wight:
Transform him to a horse, and soon
Ride him far starward of the moon,
Then leave him ere the morning light,
Half tir'd to death, half kill'd with fright.
Such tricks in Scotland oft the witches play'd
And in Connecticut it has been said.

Sir Hugo was afraid of these,
And be it understood,
He now was in a wood
So thick, you scarcely could it see for trees;
Of course he felt not much at ease.

Nor did the sounds which fell upon his ear,
Contribute much to dissipate his fear;—
Seem'd at the first a faint halloo,
But near and nearer still it drew,
Loud and louder still it grew,
At last he plainly heard 'O Hugh! O Hugh!'

Chatter'd his teeth, trembled his knees,
He thought the witches were among the trees;
Or it might be perchance,
Some ghost from France,
Come to take vengeance on Sir Hugh,
For turning it adrift at Waterloo.
But be it what it would,
He fear'd 'twas nothing good,
And 'gainst such enemies what could he do?
Again he hears, "O Hugh! O Hugh! O Hugh!"

This was too much for mortal wight to bear,
And like a hare
Off ran sir Hugh,
Or rather flew
Fast as he could,
Till past the limits of the wood;
When to his great delight
A Highlandman's cottage appeared in sight.

Soon did he enter and with trepidation,
Narrated to the folks, his sad narration;
And scarcely had he got it through,
When once again "O Hugh! O Hugh!"
Was loudly call'd,—
Sir Hugo bawl'd [there,
"It comes, it comes, there, there, there,
Some witch or ghost will off poor Hugo bear
This very night."
"Be not in such a fright,"
(Said the good woman,)
"Such voices here are very common,
And many a duck and fowl
I've lost by that same cursed owl."
"An owl! an owl!" echoed sir Hugh,
Would I had ne'er return'd from Waterloo!"

EPIGRAM.

A mantling smile of pleasure spoke,
In Delia's eye of gentle blue;
When first my lips had silence broke,
And told a passion soft and true.

I caught her hand with transports wild,
"Oh Delia! do you love me, then?"
'Ah yes," she cried, and archly smil'd,
"My bible, bids me love—all men."

It being proved on a trial at Guildhall, that a man's name was really Inch, who pretended that it was Lynch, "I see (said the judge) the old proverb is verified in this man, who being allowed an inch has taken an L."

ALEXANDRIA:
TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 11.

A KIDNAPPER CAUGHT.

The public will be pleased to hear that the scoundrels who were believed to have stolen a negro boy on Thursday, have been apprehended, and the principal lodged in prison. The circumstances, as far as we can collect them, are briefly these: On the day abovementioned, a man having purchased a watermelon at one of the wharves, employed the boy to carry it to a boat at some distance, he being in company. On his reaching the place, he was seized by him, and with the aid of another man, secured under one of the seats of the boat, which immediately put off, and was rowed with speed to Washington. On arriving, the boy was taken to the residence of one of the kidnappers, and locked up. Being afterwards liberated under a promise not to go away, he was seen and recognized on Saturday by Mr. Thomas W. Bruce, formerly of this town, to whose humane interference the owner of the boy is indebted for his recovery, and the public for the apprehension of the miscreants. They were immediately lodged in jail. One of them, however, naturally feeling restless from his unpleasant association with foul air and cramped exercise, (very fit stimulants to mental invention!) conceived in a lucky moment that his liberation could be effected by a manœuvre, not unfrequently resorted to in these degenerate times by those rogues who disregard the precept, "Honor among thieves;" and that simply was, to turn state's evidence! He was accordingly held to bail to appear at the next court, to confront (perhaps affront) his accomplice.

Boston, August 4.

ROBBERY OF THE PORTLAND BANK.

The Cumberland Bank at Portland, was opened on Saturday night last, with false keys, and robbed of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars in bills, sixteen hundred in gold, and five thousand four hundred dollars in silver. Part of the latter has been recovered. A reward of 1,000 dollars is offered for the thieves and money, or 500 dollars for either.

From the Charleston City Gazette.

Extract of a letter from a passenger on board the sloop Almyrna, to a gentleman in this city, dated

"Havana Prison, July 23, 1818.

"I take this opportunity to inform you of my unfortunate situation, being in this dismal place. On our voyage from Charleston to St. Thomas, in the sloop Almyrna, captain Peterson, we met with a schooner off the Berry Islands, having on board 73 Negroes, (all Virginia born) smuggled from Virginia, bound to New-Orleans. Capt. Peterson, knowing it to be contrary to the laws of the United States, took them on board the sloop, with the intention of carrying them into Savannah; but shortly after, the same day, fell in with the Spanish man of war brig St. Fernando, which captured us under the American flag. There were on board, the captain, six passengers, and four seamen, who were all dragged on board the brig, and put in irons, hands and feet. This was on the 9th inst. and we were kept so until we arrived here, which was the 19th, when we were put into this prison, amongst, thieves, robbers and murderers of all colors. They stript us of money and clothing. I got an old shirt from the mate, and an old pair of trowsers from the cook, or I should have been entirely naked. Our allowance for 24 hours is one ounce of bread and one and a half gills of molasses and water, (which they call coffee) in the morning; at 12 o'clock, one ounce of fresh beef and half a pint of rice. Our lodging is on the bare floor. The Negroes were to have been sold on Sunday, but the Dons were afraid, they being American property."

From the Boston Patriot.

FROM CHILI.

In our last paper, we gave a translation of the document by which the inhabitants of Santiago made a voluntary offering of all their wrought silver, to support the cause of independence. The following is the decree of their government, issued in consequence of that event;

DECREE.

Santiago, March 5th, 1818.

The Secretaries of State and of the Treasury are ordered to make known to the clergy, the magistracy, public bodies and individual citizens of Santiago, that the government, while it laments its inability to command language adequate to express the gratitude elicited by patriotism as rare as it is glorious, has directed the following inscription to be engraven on the columns erected at the eastern and western entrances of the capital:

"The Fifth of March, 1818, the Citizens of Santiago voluntarily stripped themselves of all their wrought silver, solemnly declaring that they would not supply its place while the Country remained in danger."

"NATIONS OF THE UNIVERSE! STRANGERS WHO ENTER CHILI! DECIDE IF SUCH A PEOPLE CAN BE ENSLAVED."

The generosity of a heroic people forbidding the government's availing itself of other means of providing for the exigencies of the state than those founded on implicit confidence in their virtue—it is ordered that henceforth the monthly contribution of the citizens of Santiago be discontinued.—

It is furthermore ordered that the articles of wrought silver so considered and treated as a deposit, which may serve as a pledge and security for the foreign succours the government may solicit; in order that if the war concludes quickly, (as, in humble reliance on the protection of the Most High, we hope it will) they may be redeemed by the ordinary revenue of the public.—And in conformity to the request which has been made, the two Alcaldes of this Capital, Don Jose Manuel Lecaros, Don Domingo Toro, Don Ignacio and Don Domingo Essaguirre, the fiscal de la camara Don Jose de Gregorro Argomedo, and Don Francisco Antonio Perez, are appointed commissioners to receive the offering, it shall be their duty to give to each citizen, making such pure oblation on the altar of patriotism, a receipt specifying its weight and form, together with the marks distinguishing it, should such exist; they shall also provide a book, in which the receipt signed by the commssioners and the donor, shall be recorded; the book shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary of the Cabildo. It is ordered that the address of the citizens of Santiago, and this decree, be printed, in order that it may be communicated to the army and to our allies, and serve as a document to those nations who are ignorant of the true character of the American revolution.

Extract of a letter, dated

"St. Helena, March 14, 1818.

"Independent of all the miseries I have described, as being inseparable from a residence upon this rock, the insalubrity of the climate is so great as to excite the most serious apprehensions in my mind for my family.—Liver complaints, dysenteries, and bowel affections of the most violent nature, prevail here to a most alarming extent. Perhaps in no given space of the same extent in the world is hepatitis so frequently found, or under so formidable appearances, suppurations frequently taking place in a few days from the first attack, whilst others are spun out to a more protracted, but equally fatal termination.—Not a day passes without our ears being dinned with the lugubrious sound of the funeral bell, tolling for two or three who have fallen victims to its mortality. Already the heads of the first families in the island, have been hurried to the grave by it. During the course of several years service in India, I have never seen the complaint proceed with such rapid steps to a fatal termination. Since the arrival of the 66th regiment here, in 1816, until the end of 1817, we have buried one hundred men, women and children, being about one-thirteenth part of the whole, and the remainder of the King's troops have lost about 40, independent of the deaths of the squadron, which amount to near 60, and those of the St. Helena Regiment and inhabitants, which is greater in proportion than would be experienced either in the East or West Indies. What could have induced writers to boast so much of the salubrity of this Island I cannot discover, as very few of the natives arrive at the age of 40, and it is peculiarly unfriendly to Europeans, and above all to such as have passed the meridian of life. Few even of the most temperate of my acquaintance are free from some hepatic affection, to produce which there must be certain inexplicable causes existing in the air and the water, as those of both sexes and of every age, who scarcely ever stir out, (and who, consequently are not exposed to the great change of temperature experienced on ascending the mountains from the town, to which, and to the action of the rays of the sun, the prevalence of the malady was first attributed,) and who lead the most temperate lives, are frequently attacked by it. There has been three deaths at Longwood within the last three weeks; amongst them was Bonaparte's steward, Cypriani, a man well known and greatly respected here—all of them by bowel complaints, and it is whispered that his master will soon follow, as he has been laboring under symptoms of liver complaint (produced probably by the climate, and aggravated by confinement) for some time. It is an ill wind that blows nobody good;—at least we will gain a release from this wretched unhealthy rock, upon that event taking place."

Cincinnati, (Ohio,) July 21.

AN INGENIOUS TRICK.

An honest countryman returning a few days since from Market, took a young fellow into his waggon, who, by his address and conversation, won so much upon the old gentleman's esteem, that he agreed to take him home with him. The young stranger represented to his new made patron, that he had been in better circumstances, and as he was seeking employment, seemed very grateful for his kindness. The credulous old man was equally pleased on his part, from having met with so generous a youth. They had now got some miles from town, when, as it were, by accident, the young man leaning forward, happened to discover in the road a white piece of folded paper, which, on opening, he found contained a quarter of a dollar. As it was wrapped up in two or three papers, the young man observed that the owner must have been very choice of it; and slipping a cent into the paper instead of the quarter, said to the countryman, that should they meet with the owner upon the journey, they would have a pleasant joke with him.

In a short distance they discovered a man in the habit of a traveller, sitting by the road side feeling in his pockets, and as they came up to him they enquired if he had lost any thing? The traveller replied that he had lost a quarter of a dollar, and on being shewn the paper, exclaimed ah! that's it: I'll bet you ten dollars there is a quarter in that paper. The countryman, who saw the cent put in the paper, and not suspecting that any thing more than a piece of pleasantry was intended, was persuaded by his young companion to lend him the money for the bet. Some bantering took place concerning the quarter and the bet was raised to twenty dollars, the old man lending ten dollars more. The money being laid down on both sides, the paper was opened. To the utter astonishment of the old gentleman and the affected confusion of the cheat, the quarter was really found in it!—The traveller gathered up his money and walked off very composedly, leaving the matter to be settled between the old man and his guest. The villain, who had slily replaced the quarter, pretended to be under some powerful incantation, and said the traveller had "bewitched" him. He stood some time snuffing, wiping his eyes, and writhing his body—till at length the spell seemed to wear away; he then assured the countryman that he would make him a remuneration for his twenty dollars, in labour. He, however, before proceeding many miles further, with a good deal of difficulty persuaded the credulous old man to let him follow the traveller to get back the money. He immediately set off upon the run, but has not yet returned. As both the villains were afterwards seen together, it is presumed they play their tricks in concert and share their booty between them.

NEW TOWNS IN THE WESTERN COUNTRY.

HAYWOOD.—The Cape Fear Navigation Company having commenced the improvement of the river about Fayettville, invite the attention of merchants and traders to the town of Haywood.

The lands on which the town is laid out were purchased by the company several years ago, and part of the lots were then sold. A considerable number of the residue of the lots will be exposed to sale on the premises on the 4th and 5th of September next, on a credit of 6 and 12 months. This town is situated near the centre of the state, at the confluence of the Haw and Deep rivers, convenient to the greatest part of the Tobacco and Wheat Company, which now trades to the Cape Fear. The Company expect that within less than two years a commodious navigation will be opened to this town for boats carrying fifty hogsheads of tobacco. They assure the public that no exertions will be spared on their part to effect this purpose.

Preparations are now making by sundry individuals to erect bridges across the rivers and to establish extensive brickyards at this place. Several carpenters are about to settle themselves in the town;—and the Company hope that persons disposed to make establishments there will meet with no difficulty in procuring either materials or workmen.

H. BRONSON, Prest.

MOUNT CARMEL.—The sight of this town has been judiciously selected for health, agriculture, manufactories and navigation, in the Illinois territory, from 23 to 25 miles by land below Vincennes—25 miles by land above Harmony, on the Wabash opposite the mouth of the White River and Patoka, at the foot of the Grand Rapids.

The design of the establishment was to embrace an opportunity while the land was cheap, to secure a sufficiency for the purpose of raising school funds, and a fund for building churches. One fourth of the in and out lots are appropriated to those purposes. One half of the lots are appropriated (on certain conditions) to improvers or settlers, and one fourth retained by the proprietors.

An impression has gone abroad and improperly made on the minds of many, that the establishment has been made on sectarian principles—it is altogether unfounded—and the respectable part of the community of all orders, and moral characters, have equal rights in the establishment with those already concerned. The establishment was also particularly designed to support the cause of morality.

Every encouragement will be given to industrious mechanics—two or three dry-good and grocery stores would do a good business—shoe makers, a tanner, and some brick and stone masons are much wanted. The agents is authorized by the proprietors to let the ferry for three or four years, rent free, to any industrious moral character, who will find a boat and open a road to the ferry a short distance, and his occupancy continued thereafter on reasonable terms. The principal travelling from Ohio and Kentucky (by Louisville, &c.) to Mississippi and Missouri, hereafter will cross at this ferry—Steam boat navigation may be advantageously carried on from N. Orleans to this point at all seasons.

A public sale of the lots will take place in the above town on the first Monday in October next.

The agent for the proprietors is Wm. Beaucamp, Mount Carmel.

POINTOPOLIS.—The town of Pointopolis is situated on the Ohio river, at the mouth of Big Indian Creek, to be connected with Pointpleasant by the elegant frame bridge now building, and is to be (by contract) completely finished by the first of August next.

The local situation of the town is highly advantageous, surrounded by rich and flourishing plantations—a number of grist and saw mills—an excellent harbour for shipping at all seasons—and the most central point of the river, with regard to the interior of Clermont county—it is consequently generally believed that the county seat will be established at this place, in consequence of the late division—there is therefore, laid off for public buildings a large square in the most central and beautiful situation on the ground plot, and the proprietors have pledged themselves to give a considerable sum of money towards the erection of public works.

Besides the public square there are two large market places, and an extensive promenade. The object of the proprietors being to adopt a plan on the most liberal principles, they have endeavoured to combine utility, beauty and convenience, in hopes that they may see the town in a few years rapidly progressing towards the pre-eminence to which its local, commercial, and political advantages must, eventually raise it.

The proprietors are William Litle, Wm. Steele, and Thomas Danby.

CITY OF SANDUSKY.—The city of Sandusky is situated on the South shore of Sandusky Bay, about 3 miles from the entrance thereof—on a scite of ground as beautiful as can be found in the United States.

Sandusky Bay is the best harbor on the south shore of Lake Erie, and affords a sufficient draught of water for the largest vessels which are navigated on the upper lakes, to approach near the shore, on which this city is located.

It is surrounded by as fine a country of land as can be found in the United States, much of which, on the south, to the Ohio river, is well settled, under good improvement, and is accommodated with turnpike and other public roads, now opening in various directions.

It is situated on the Southern most part of the upper lakes, and about one hundred miles north of Columbus, the seat of the state government.

The advantages of this situation for commercial and other purposes, are already well known. It is, however, second to none in Western America, except the city of New-Orleans, and in point of health greatly its superior.

MALAGA.—The town of Malaga is laid out on a liberal plan, in section No. 12, township 6, and range 6, on the dividing ridge between Capitana and Sunfish Creek, in Monroe County, in the state of Ohio.

Malaga is handsomely situated on the great road from Pennsylvania through Virginia, crossing the Ohio at Grave Creek, and leading westward to Zanesville; and it is intersected by the United States road leading from St. Claresville through Marietta, south westerly. It is also intersected by the road from Barnsville to Woodsfield, and by the roads from Capitana and Sunfish Creeks, by Duck Creek Salt Works, to New Lexington, near the Muskingum.

The fertility of the soil, the salubrity of the air, the excellence of its waters, the abundance of stone coal, iron ore, and other mineral substances, together with the rapid progress of the settlement, render this place an object worthy the attention of merchants and tradesmen of different kinds, and of those who are desirous of insuring to themselves a handsome profit on their money in a reasonable time.

The proprietors are Horton Howard and John Hendershot.

ATHENS.—The town of Athens is pleasantly laid out in the centre of Limestone county, on the main road leading from Huntsville to the western counties, to the Muscle Shoals, and to New-Orleans: The post route by land from East Tennessee, North Carolina and Virginia, to New-Orleans, will, in all probability, pass through this town.

The situation of this town has been selected by the legislature of the territory for the temporary seat of justice of the county; and the centrical situation will doubtless secure it to this place permanently. Although the largest body of the most valuable land lies south of Athens, yet the free population of the county are so equally dispersed, that no other situation can be selected which will so effectually accommodate the community. In short, public sentiment has for a long time yielded to this place its superiority in point of eligibility of situation, for the people of the county to transact their judicial business at. Next to its location in the centre of the county and of the population, the most important circumstances that can be urged in its favour is the salubrity of the place. The impossibility of enjoying good health is a well founded objection on all places on or adjacent to the Tennessee River. Whatever advantage other towns may possess, as points from which the produce of the country is to be shipped, they make no pretensions to healthiness of situation, which in a new country like this is of all others the most important consideration with reflecting people, and those who have a regard to their own comfort or the happiness of their families. Speculators will buy in places advantageous for the transaction of commercial business, but few will reside where they cannot enjoy good health.

Athens from its local situation and salubrity may be regarded as the permanent seat of justice for Limestone county.

This county embraces about 16 townships, from 2d to 7th ranges west of the Meridian; the whole of which was offered for sale in Feb. last at Huntsville: and the land which now lies within the limits of this county brought to the government more than 500,000 dollars, which fact is conclusive of its fertility and value. It was in this county that good lands for plantations sold from 30 to 70 dollars per acre bought by the farmer for purposes of immediate improvement. The undersigned hazard nothing in saying that the county of Limestone will stand unrivalled by any in the territory for wealth. The land is of that value and bought up by that class of people which will insure its immediate settlement.

Athens will offer incomparably the finest opening in this part of the territory for mechanicks and merchants. Situated in the heart of a country of incalculable wealth, which is populating with unparalleled rapidity, by affluent emigrants from a distance, it holds out the greatest inducement to enterprising and industrious mechanicks. The wants of this class of agriculturalists are perhaps more numerous than those of any other in society, and their ability to gratify them are unequalled by any. It is the agricultural interests in cotton countries that support the mechanick, merchant and professional character.

Athens is watered by three perennial springs, all of which are convenient to the town.

The commissioned agents of the proprietors are Robert Beatty and John Carriel, Huntsville, (Tenn.)

Valuable Estate for Sale.

UNDER the authority of a decree from the Equity Court of Prince George's county, the subscriber will on Wednesday the 23d day of September next, offer at public sale, at the house of Isidore Hardy, in Piscataway, a most valuable property, the Estate of George R. Leiper,

Esq. deceased, so well known by the name of MONTPELIER—about 2 miles from Piscataway, 9 miles from Alexandria, and 16 from Washington city,

This farm, which contains rather more than 600 acres, is truly valuable. The soil is fertile and highly susceptible of improvement by the use of clover and plaster. The buildings are good and commodious, and the scite of the Mansion, in beauty of perspective and salubrity of air, is excelled by few on Potomac river. To be enabled to appreciate fully the elegance of the situation and all the advantages which result to the possessor of this valuable estate, it is only necessary that it should be viewed, which may be done, and every necessary information obtained, by application to the subscriber, or Mr. Aquilla Baden, the present manager of the farm.

The terms of sale are that the purchaser shall pay one-third in ready money, and the residue in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond with approved security, and on the ratification of the sale by the court, and the payment of the whole purchase money with the interest thereon due, and not before, the trustee will execute to the purchaser a deed in the terms of the decree. RAN away from the subscriber, living near New-Port, Maryland, on Friday, the 25th May, a Negro Man named GERARD, about 5 feet high, of a dark complexion, about 30 years of age, stout made, limps a little when he walks: had on when he went away a country cloth jacket and trowsers about half worn and coarse hat, but he may change his dress, as he has free connexions a little below St. Thomas's Manor, at Nace Butler's. He has a wife at Thomas Jennifer's Quarters, near Port Tobacco, and calls himself GERARD BUTLER. He took a black mare with him, which he has since left at his father's, the said Nace's. He has been seen within a few weeks in Alexandria. Whoever takes up said Negro, and secures him in any jail so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.

The clothes he took with him are not recollected, except a red flannel shirt, a pair of Russia duck sailor's trowsers, and a coarse wool hat with broad brim, nearly half worn. Having gone off without any provocation, it is probable his intention is to steer his course towards Baltimore or Pennsylvania, and pass for a free man. He has hauled the seine the two last seasons in Pomonkey, where he may have gone, or perhaps to Alexandria, where he is also a little acquainted. If taken 20 miles from home, or out of the county, I will give 20 dollars for securing him in any gaol, or if taken 50 miles from home, or out of the state, I will give the above reward of fifty dollars. RAN away from the subscriber on Saturday night the 27th ult, a Negro man by the name of JACOB THOMPSON, aged 22 or 23, nearly 6 feet high, very black, and rather a down look when spoken to—he is very apt to put one hand up to his chin when answering questions. He is a very submissive orderly fellow—His clothing that can be recollected consisted of a blue second cloth coat with yellow buttons, nearly new; Russia sheeting shirts and trowsers, and a variety of other clothing not recollected. I fully expect he must have from 150 to 200 dollars with him in money—and very little doubt but he had furnished himself with free papers. The Improved Patent Plough.

THE expensive force necessary for ploughing in the common way, has been long known and lamented by farmers. Many attempts have been made to obviate that inconvenience, by the construction of a plough on Mechanical principles, and patents have been granted to applicants who profess to have improved on that agricultural implement. These improvements are now before the public, the proper arbiters in such cases, who will approve or condemn according to the merits or demerits of the performance.

I, also, have become a candidate for public patronage, and shall attempt to explain and give reasons to show at least some advantages which I think my plough possesses over any other now in use.

For its durability and simplicity of construction, its first excellency, no plough now in use surpasses it—but its chief advantages lie in the ease with which it breaks and inverts the soil, and will plough in clover or grass land of any kind without being clogged or choaked. These properties arise from the mechanical principles on which it is formed. The wedge is said to possess the requisite properties for breaking and raising the soil with the least applicable force. This plough is so formed as to form a wedge with the mould-board, which raises the earth gradually to the greatest perpendicular height, when by a regular turn of the mould-board it is inverted, rendering the pressure inconsiderable, and consequently the force necessary to draw it proportionably small. The beam is made of iron or wood, and has a considerable curve, which permits all vegetable matter to pass off. I would recommend the iron beam, as it has several advantages over the wood, and the difference of expense small.

I have thought it a duty to my fellow citizens to publish a few lines of instruction to facilitate the mode of using and repairing the same. Before the plough is used, the mould-board should be scoured with free stone or a well burnt brick and water until it is perfectly smooth. The horses should draw by a double or treble tree, which is confined to the clevice or beam by an open ring. The point and share should be laid with steel when necessary; the latter must be kept level with the bar, and the point inclined a little down. If this be well attended to by the good husbandman, he will be able to eat the fatted calf, when the indolent will sink into want.

June 27 Th2m

Dr. Thomson's System of Chemistry.

IN FOUR VOLUMES OCTAVO.

THE preceding edition of Dr. Thomson's Chemistry, had acquired so much reputation both in England and upon the continent of Europe, that a new edition, comprising the new facts with which the science had been enriched, and the new views of the subject which extended knowledge had suggested as indispensable, was eagerly looked for by the scientific world. A new edition has accordingly appeared, wherein the former edition of five volumes has been condensed into four.

All the new discoveries, and all the new theories of Chemical Phænomena, have been considered and embraced in the present improved edition: so that it is indispensable to the chemical student, as presenting the only condensed view of the changes and alterations in chemical doctrine, which the discoveries of the last ten years have suggested. No apology therefore can be necessary for reprinting such a book in this country; for the press does not furnish a substitute for it. But, there is so much theoretical suggestion—so much abstruse calculation—so much fact of dubious authority—and so much dubious validity—that notes and illustrations are absolutely necessary, not merely to render the book more useful, but more intelligible.

Under these impressions, I thought fit to write notes in illustration (and sometimes in contradiction) of the work itself, rather than to make any abridgement of it. Those who wish to know the modern views of chemical science, must peruse it; and to very many who will be anxious to study it, elucidation will be necessary. I have endeavoured to supply these, to the best of my ability; regardless whether my own opinions are in dissonance or coincidence with those of my author; leaving to the reader to decide between us.

The work will be published, with notes and illustrations, in four volumes 8vo.

THOMAS COOPER, M. D.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be printed on a superfine paper, with a new small pica letter; and will be published early in the ensuing summer.

II. It will be illustrated with a number of cuts, of which several have been necessarily added to the London edition.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE's MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.
